Meet the Mohs Surgery Team

Dr. Brandon Coakley

Dr. Coakley was the first fellowship-trained Mohs Surgeon in Myrtle Beach. He trained at Mayo Clinic Arizona, Johns Hopkins/Sinai Hospital, University of Arizona, and University of California Irvine before joining Waccamaw Dermatology. During your visit he will carefully remove your skin cancer, analyze the tissue in the laboratory, and then perform your reconstruction. It is extremely important to him that every patient receives high quality and compassionate care.

Elizabeth Watson, NP

Elizabeth “Liz” is a Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner with nearly ten years of Operating experience working as a first assist and suturing. She will be assisting Dr. Coakley throughout your surgical procedure. She also provides wound care education and will assist with your post-operative visits.

Bailey Byrne, CMA, Mohs team lead

Bailey has been a Certified Medical Assistant for over 10 years. She began her career as a phlebotomist then continued her education to become a Certified Medical Assistant. She is passionate about patient care and making you feel at home. Her role is to prepare you for your procedure, assist during surgery, and set you up for success before you go home.

Candice Todd, MA, Clinical lead

Candice has been a Medical Assistant for over 10 years. She has 13 years of experience working in dermatology at Waccamaw Dermatology. Her role is to prepare you for your procedure, assist during surgery, and set you up for success before you go home.

Tiffany Griffin, CST

Tiffany has worked as a Certified Surgical Technologist for the last thirteen years. She has trained extensively in Mohs Surgery for the last six years. Her role is to prepare you for your procedure, assist during surgery, and set you up for success before you go home.

Jennifer Kramer, MA

Jen has been a Medical Assistant for over 20 years. She is passionate about providing excellent patient care. Her role is to prepare you for your procedure, assist during surgery, and set you up for success before you go home.

Holly Cernugel, CST

Holly is a Certified Surgical Technologist, and is currently completing training to be a Surgical First Assistant. She has over 10 years of experience working in healthcare, primarily in surgery. Her role is to prepare you for your procedure, assist during surgery, and set you up for success before you go home.
